

Vietnam Veterans (Exposed to Agent Orange)

Any veteran who served in the Republic of Vietnam between 1/9/62 and 5/7/75 is considered exposed to Agent Orange. In RVN means on land.

All following conditions are considered related to AO exposure:

- diabetes mellitus, type II
- ischemic heart disease (coronary artery disease, etc)
- prostate cancer
- respiratory cancers (lung, bronchus, larynx, trachea)
- Parkinson's disease
- Hodgkin's disease
- non-Hodgkin's lymphoma
- chronic lymphocytic leukemia
- b-cell or hairy cell leukemia
- soft-tissue sarcoma (other than osteosarcoma, chondrosarcoma, Kaposi's sarcoma or mesothelioma)
- multiple myeloma
- porphyria cutanea tarda*
- acute and subacute peripheral neuropathy*
- chloracne or other acneform disease similar to chloracne*