The Old Rugged Cross

1. On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross, The emblem of suffering and shame;
2. Oh, that old rugged cross, so despised by the world, has a wondrous attraction for me;
3. In that old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine, a wondrous beauty I see,
4. To the old rugged cross I will ever be true; Its shame and reproach gladly bear;

And I love that old cross where the dearest and best For a world of lost sinners was slain.
For the dear Lam of God left His glory above To bear it to dark Calvary.
For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died, To pardon and sanctify me.
Then He'll call me someday to my home far away, Where His glory forever I'll share.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, Till my trophies at last I lay down;

I will cling to the old rugged cross, And exchange it someday for a crown.

GOD BLESS AMERICA
ASSEMBLY JOINS IN SINGING

GOD BLESS AMERICA
by Irving Berlin

God Bless America is an American patriotic song written by Irving Berlin in 1918 and revised by him in 1938. The later version was recorded by Kate Smith, and became her signature song.

Berlin wrote the song in 1918 while serving the U.S. Army at Camp Upton in Yaphank, New York, but decided that it did not fit in a revue called Yip Yip Yaphank, so he set it aside.

In 1938, with the rise of Hitler, Berlin, who was Jewish and a first-generation European immigrant, felt it was time to revive it as a "peace song", and it was introduced on an Armistice Day broadcast in 1938 sung by Kate Smith, on her radio show.

While the storm clouds gather far across the sea,
Let us swear allegiance to a land that's free.
Let us all be grateful for a land so fair,
As we raise our voices in a solemn prayer:

*God bless America, land that I love,
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with a light from above.
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam,
God bless America,
My home sweet home.*

Unknown Soldier

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside
the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I shall dwell
in the house of the Lord forever.*
