CONSTITUTION

Article I - Name

The name of this Organization shall be "Disabled American Veterans Department (DAV) of Washington" chartered by the National Executive Committee of the DAV.

Article II – Purpose

The purpose of the Department is to fulfill our promises to the people who served, and, in furtherance of that purpose, to support the programs of the DAV as provided in the National Constitution and Bylaws and Regulations of the National Executive Committee. To uphold and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States of America: To realize the true American ideals and aims for which those eligible to membership fought; to advance the interests and work for the betterment of all wounded, gassed, injured and disabled veterans, to cooperate with the United States Veterans Administration and all other public and private agencies devoted to the cause of improving and advancing the condition, health and interests of wounded, gassed, injured and disabled veterans; to stimulate a feeling of mutual devotion, helpfulness and comradeship among all wounded, gassed, injured and disabled veterans; to serve our comrades, our communities and our country; and to encourage in all people that spirit of understanding which will guard against future wars.

Article III - Membership

The Department consists of all Chapters of the DAV which have been duly organized within the State of Washington, and which have been Chartered according to the National Constitution and Bylaws. Membership in any Chapter is governed by the provisions in the National Constitution and Bylaws. Transfer of membership from one Chapter to another will be made in accordance with the National Bylaws. A transfer of membership will not affect the voting strength of either Chapter until the first of the next membership year. No member has any right or interest in the property of this corporation. All matters relating to the reprimand, suspension, transfer, and expulsion of any member within the Department against whom charges have been filed will follow the National Constitution and Bylaws.

Article IV - Powers

To have perpetual succession, with power to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity; to receive, hold, own, use, and dispose of such real estate and personal property necessary for its corporate purposes; to adopt a corporate seal and alter the same at pleasure; to adopt a Constitution, Bylaws to carry on its purposes consistent with the laws of the United States of America, the State of Washington or the National Organization and to be governed thereby.

Article V - Administration

The administrative affairs of this Organization shall be vested in the Department Executive Committee. The Department Convention shall elect a Department Commander, Department Senior Vice Commander, Department Junior Vice Commander, Department Judge Advocate, Department Treasurer, Department Chaplain, one Finance Officer to replace the Third Year Finance Officer, and one Claims and Services Officer to replace the Third Year Claims and Services Officer. The Department Commander will not succeed themselves more than once. The Department Commander will not hold any other elected or appointed department office while serving as Department Commander.

Article VI - Legislation

Legislative Power of the Department is vested in the Department Convention, except this power is vested in the Department Executive Committee between conventions, provided, such action will not conflict with convention mandates or this Constitution and Bylaws.

Article VII - Auxiliaries

The Department recognizes a Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary as an auxiliary unit of the Disabled American Veterans, subject to its supervision and recommendations.

Article VIII - Amendments

This constitution may be amended at any Department Convention by majority vote of the regularly elected and qualified delegates thereat. After a majority vote amendments must be ratified prior to the next Convention. Amendments must be read at convention at least one calendar day prior to them being voted on for approval or disapproval. Amendments to this Constitution and Bylaws will be effective upon approval by the governing body of this organization and approved by the National Judge Advocate.

DEPARTMENT BYLAWS

Article 1 – Organization

Section 1.1: This Department recognized the national organization known as Disabled American Veterans (DAV), incorporated by an Act of Congress and affirms its allegiance and subordination to the National Organization, its Constitution, Bylaws and all rules, mandates and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. Upon dissolution of the Department, the assets remaining after the payment of its debts shall be distributed as provided by Article 6 of the National Bylaws. Charter for this Department, issued by the National Executive Committee, is its authority to function and shall be displayed behind the Commander's station.

Section 1.2: The Department Executive Committee

Para 1: The executive power of this Organization shall be vested in the Department Commander. The Department Executive Committee will be composed of the Department Commander, Department Senior and Junior Vice Commander, Immediate Past Department Commander and one Delegate from each of the Chapters.

Para 2: A quorum for an Executive Committee meeting will consist of fifty-one percent of elected officials and fifty-one percent of the Chapters registered for the meeting. The Executive Committee may, request the Commander and the Adjutant to secure legal advice before acting on any contract.

Section 1.3: Meetings

Para 1: The Executive Committee will hold its stated meetings as follows:

One within 24 hours preceding the Convention. One within 24 hours preceding the Mid-Year Conference. One within 24 hours following adjournment of each Convention. At other times, during the period of the Convention whenever the Commander deems it necessary, or when such action is necessitated by the Constitution and Bylaws of this Organization.

Para 2: The Commander may call a special meeting of the Executive Committee, with written consent of the majority of the Executive Committee and must do so upon written demand of 40 percent of its members.

Para 3: The regular business of the organization requiring consideration of the Executive Committee between stated meetings will be transacted by mail/email. The Governing Body of this Department is its Department Convention when in session, Executive Committee and Delegates from the Chapters chartered therein. The Department Convention and Department Executive Committee will keep records of its proceedings which will be available to review within 120 days after each session.

Article 2 - Policy

The Department will be nonpolitical and nonsectarian, and the name of this organization will not be used in representing the desires or wishes of its members in any partisan, political, sectarian, or labor dispute except as hereinafter provided. The foregoing will not prevent this organization, or any unit thereof from participating in political issues, which have a direct bearing upon the welfare of America's disabled veterans.

Article 3 - Bonds & Insurance

The Department Adjutant will procure the necessary bonds for all persons with access to the funds of the Department, appointed, or elected, must be bonded, commensurate with the position held within the Department, and for no less than $2,500.00 per position. The Department Adjutant will procure necessary insurance that provides a general liability policy to cover the actions and functions of the Department, its elected officers, and its employees, for any acts performed in the proper performance of their official duties. Proper insurance coverage will be obtained for the Department equipment. It is the responsibility of Department and Chapters to protect DAV assets from theft or conversion. Without limitation, implementation of sound fiscal management practices and the purchase of insurance to cover theft losses.

Article 4 - Chapters

Section 4.1: Formation. Chapters will be formed as provided for in the National Bylaws. The probation, suspension and/or revocation of any Chapter charter issued within the Department is set forth in the National Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 4.2: Election of Officers. Each Chapter will elect or appoint such officers as mandated by the Chapter Bylaws and the National Bylaws Article 9. Elections will be held between March 1st and May 15th of each year.

Section 4.3: Removal from Office. The Chapter Commander may remove any appointive officer from their office with or without cause, with the approval of a majority of the members present by secret ballot. Any five or more members of a Chapter may sign a written petition for the recall of any Appointive or Elected Chapter Officer, which will state the reasons, therefore. The petition will be read at the meeting at which it is presented, but no further action will be taken thereon until the next meeting. At least seven days before a vote, a copy of the petition will be given to the Officer concerned, together with a written notice stating the time, date, and location of the next meeting and that at such time the petition will be debated and voted on for approval or disapproval. After discussion at that meeting, a vote, by secret ballot, will be taken that such Officer be recalled from office. If adopted by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present, the vacancy is created. If an appointive office, it will be filled by the Commander, with approval of the Chapter will be filled by nomination and election at the same meeting.

Section 4.4: Financial Records & Reports

Para 1: Each Chapter will keep a complete record of all receipts and payouts of Chapter funds and will make an annual Financial Report to the Department of Washington and National Organization within ninety days after the close of the accounting year, which is the membership year commencing July 1 and ending June 30. All reports must be filed on forms provided by National Headquarters. All Chapter Funds must be deposited in a bank or trust company in the name of the Chapter.

Para 2: To expend and remit funds by check, credit/debit card or cash with vouchers approved by two or more Chapter Officers. Two of three elected officers, two of whom will be the Commander and the Treasurer, signs bank checks. Exception to the above may be made when a Chapter maintains a petty cash fund not to exceed $50, the same to be accounted for by voucher. Email may be utilized.

Para 3: Each Chapter will have an audit committee and will not include the Commander, Senior-Vice Commander, Adjutant, Treasure, or Finance Committee Chairperson, to audit the Chapter books and records at least semi-annually and render their report to the Chapter. This provision satisfies the requirement of the National Bonding Company.

Section 4.5: Fund Raising. Procedures and restrictions of sources of income and fundraising are contained in the National Bylaws Article 15.

Section 4.6: At Large Chapter. There will be a Chapter in the Department known as the Evergreen State Chapter 11, whose members will be members of the Department who are not members of any other Chapter.

Article 5 - Finances

Section 5.1: Per Capita

Para 1: The revenue of this Department will be derived from the annual distribution of membership dues, donations, and such other sources as may be recommended by the Finance Committee and approved by the Department and the National Executive Committee. Any Fund-Raising Programs will be in accordance with the National Constitution and Bylaws.

Para 2: The Department will provide to the Treasurer such other revenues as necessary to support the activities of this Department. No alterations, deviations, or transfer of allocated funds approved by the Convention will be permitted except by Convention action, or by Executive Committee action between conventions, or unless otherwise stipulated elsewhere in these Bylaws. Adequate justification must be submitted to substantiate the proposed alteration, deviation, or transfer of allocated funds, and must have the endorsement of the Commander and the Finance Committee.

Para 3: The Department will not spend any of its funds for direct relief purposes and is, therefore precluded from making loans or advances to any of its Chapters or members.

Para 4: No withdrawal, transfer or payments from funds received by the Department Treasurer, will be made except by voucher duly signed by both the Department Commander and Treasurer, and approved by the Finance Committee.

Para 5: The account known as the DAV Service Fund will be in a separate account from the General Fund and be drawn on for no purpose other than DAV reimbursement vouchers.

Article 6 - Membership

Section 6.1: Membership. There will be no form of membership in this Department except an active membership as provided in the National Constitution and Bylaws. The Department Membership and Fiscal years start July 1 and end the following June 30.

Section 6.2: Multiple Memberships. No member shall hold memberships simultaneously in more than one Chapter within the Department unless such Chapter is composed exclusively of blind veterans.

Article 7 – Department Convention & Mid-Year Conference

Section 7.1: Composition. The Department Convention will take place in June and the Mid-Year Conference will take place in October. The current Commander will appoint either the Senior Vice or the First Junior Vice-Commander to work with the Time and Place Committee to arrange the Conferences and Conventions general locations.

Section 7.2: Convention Procedures

Para 1: The Department Convention and Mid-Year Conference will operate under Convention Rules adopted by the Department Executive Committee and ratified by the Convention. All matters of procedure not otherwise provided in the National and Department Constitution and Bylaws will be governed by Robert's Rules of Order, Revised.

Para 2: The Department Commander or Representative is the Chairperson of the Convention; the Adjutant or duly appointed representative will be responsible for the taking of the minutes of the Convention and the recording of same at all sessions. Complete minutes of the official proceedings will be kept. The Adjutant will keep records of its proceedings which will be available to review within 120 days after each session.

Para 3: Any member in good standing can have a voice on the floor when recognized by the Commander. When a member desires to be recognized, they will stand, address the chair - "Comrade Commander" - state their name and Chapter Number or Office and will proceed only after being recognized. Anyone not so addressing the properly Chair may not be recognized.

Para 4: Not more than three representatives from any one delegation will be permitted to discuss any one question on the floor of the Convention, except by a two-thirds vote of the Registered Delegates.

Para 5: Debate on any one question will be limited to five minutes for each speaker, except by a two-thirds vote of the delegates, provided however, there may be a three-minute rebuttal upon the same subject.

Para 6: Recognition will be granted only once to any one delegate on any one subject, except additional recognition may be extended by the Chair, or by a two-thirds vote of the delegates, provided however, there may be a three-minute rebuttal upon the same subject.

Section 7.3: Fees. The registration Fee for the Convention and Mid-Year Conference is $10.00 for each member attending. A Delegate Fee of $6.00 (per delegate) will be assessed each Chapter based on the number of delegates authorized. Chapters are required to pay Delegate Fees even if the Chapter does not attend the Convention or Mid-Year Conference. At each Department Convention and/or Mid-Year Conference invited Federal, State, or local guests or other Distinguished Guests in attendance will be registered as guests and will not be expected to pay such fees.

Section 7.4: Elections

Para 1: Prior to the adjournment of each Department Convention, the accredited delegates will elect the following Department Officers: Commander, Senior Vice Commander, Junior Vice-Commander, Judge Advocate, Treasurer, Chaplain, Finance Officers, Claims and Services Committee, and Board of Directors At Large.

Para 2: Any member holding membership in any Chapter of this Department whose per capita dues have been paid and duly received in the National Headquarters is eligible to any elected or appointive office in this Department, except as otherwise provided.

Para 3: There will be no form of unit rule or voting by proxy. Voting will be according to convention roll call. In the event only one candidate is presented to the body for a given office, the Convention may instruct the Adjutant to cast a unanimous ballot for that office. Voting will be by voice, except when two or more Chapters will demand a roll call vote, no person will participate except fully Registered Delegates and Alternates. Delegates and Alternates will be segregated from Visitors. Visitors who attempt to partake in the discussion or the voting will be escorted from the meeting hall.

Para 4: Officers will not hold any other office during their term of office. The phrase "any other office" will refer only to the Department and is not intended to prevent an elected Department Officer from participating at Chapter, or National Organizational level.

Para 5: In order for a member in good standing to be elected and installed, they must be present during the election and available to receive the oath of obligation during the installation ceremony. An exception to this rule may be granted in the case of a member, with notification, who due to illness or emergency prevented his/her, attendance during the election and installation. This would allow the body to elect and install by abstention. The exception may be granted at the sole discretion of the DEC by majority vote.

Para 6: Each Chapter is eligible to one delegate/alternate for each of twenty-five members or fraction thereof. The Chapter will elect chapter delegates/alternates. The Chapter membership/voting strength will be determined from National Headquarters, based upon membership received and processed at National headquarters as of March 31st. Only in the event of a tiebreaker each Department Elected Officer and Past Department Commanders, are entitled to one vote each. Each Chapter Delegation present will elect a chairperson, who will announce the vote of the Delegation. When polled the Chairperson is entitled to vote for the Delegation without debate or discussion of the question.

Para 7: If a chapter nominates fewer delegates than it is entitled to, all persons who have been nominated shall be declared delegates. If a Chapter is unable to fill all delegate to which it is entitled the delegation is entitled to cast more all of the Chapter votes divided equally among those delegates present. Chapter Delegates and Alternates are elected by their respective Chapters at least 15 days prior to the Convention and certified to the Department on forms provided by the Adjutant.

Para 8: No Delegate or Alternate representing any Chapter which is indebted to the Department in any amount, will be seated or entitled to vote at the Department Convention until such indebtedness has been satisfied.

Para 9: The Department Adjutant will render statements to all Chapters within the Department, not less than 30 days before each Department Convention as to their respective indebtedness and Voting Strength. On payment of such indebtedness, the Chapter will be considered free and clear of all indebtedness for the limiting purpose to determining whether its Delegates will be entitled to a seat and vote at said Convention. No Delegate or Alternate representing any Chapter whose Charter has been suspended and has not been reinstated prior to the first business meeting of the Convention will be seated or entitled to vote.

Para 10: Any Officer, Past Department Commander, Delegate or Alternate must be a paid up partial or full paid life member whose membership is within the Department and will be a member in good standing.

Para 11: A quorum exists at the Convention when a majority of the Elected Department Officers and fifty-one percent of the Chapters registered for the Convention are present.

Para 12: During the election and voting, the Sergeant at Arms will secure the doors to the voting chambers, and anyone who departs from the chambers during the voting will not be readmitted until after the completion on the roll call for that office.

Para 13: Nomination of Department Officers will be open on the second day of the Convention. Second nominations and elections of Officers will be held as provided in the Bylaws. In the event more than two candidates are nominated for one office, the balloting will continue; the majority rule will prevail and after the first ballot, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes will automatically be dropped from the balloting.

Article 8 - Department Elected Officers & Their Duties

Section 8.1: Officers and Committee Members Procedure Manual. The Adjutant will maintain a file detailing the duties and descriptions of elected and appointed officers within the Department referred to as the Officers and Committee Procedures Manual.
